IOWA CONFERENCE WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP PREVIEW

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA . . . The 2005 Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC) women's golf Championship begins this weekend, September 30-October 1, with the first 36-holes of the 72-hole Championship. This weekend's rounds will be played at Pheasant Ridge Golf Club in Cedar Falls, Iowa. The final 36-holes will be played October 7-8, at Finkbine Golf Course in Iowa City, Iowa. Friday rounds begin at 10:00 a.m. Saturday rounds begin at 9:00 a.m.

Pairings for play on the first day are determined by team stroke averages. The top four 18-hole scores on courses of at least 5,800 yards will be used to determine team stroke averages. Players from the three teams with the lowest stroke average will play together as will players from the fourth, fifth and sixth ranked teams (based on stroke average) and players from the seventh, eighth and ninth ranked teams.

Pairings for play in rounds two and three will be based on each teams' score position from the previous day. The final round pairings will be determined by individual scores after round three.

About the 2005 Season: Defending Conference Champion Wartburg enters the 2005 Championship having won five of six Tournaments this year with its only second-place finish coming as a result of losing a tie-breaker with Buena Vista. The Beavers have two championships, two second-place finishes and two thirds in six Tournaments this year. Simpson has two runner-up finishes and a third-place finish, Loras has three straight top-three finishes and a fifth-place tie, and Central has a fourth-place and two fifth-place finishes.

Wartburg enters the Conference Championship with the lowest team stroke average in the IIAC at 324.63 including the Conference's three lowest rounds of the season and seven of the nine lowest. Buena Vista has the IIAC's second-best stroke average at 336.88 in eight rounds and has five of the Conference's 15 low rounds. Simpson is third with a 343.14 stroke average in seven rounds and has three of the Conference's 15 low rounds.

Wartburg's Erin Dohlman and Buena Vista's Jennifer Stork have the only individual sub-80 stroke averages at 79 and 79.13, respectively. Dohlman has a low round of 76 and a total of five rounds in the 70s. Stork has a low round of 76 and a total of six rounds in the 70s. Other top stroke averages during the year were Simpson's Steph Schenfeld (80.71, low 76), Wartburg's Andrea Schiltz (81.88, low 78), Wartburg's Kate Thompson (82.25, low 78), Wartburg's Megan Cress (82.63, low 78), Buena Vista's Rita Haas (84.63, low 78), Luther's Christie Anderson (84.71, low 78), Simpson's Jess Harvey (84.71, low 76) and Wartburg's Lindsey Huinker (84.75, low 79).

2004 Recap: Wartburg jumped out to an eight stroke lead after the first round and shot Championship-low round 317 on the final day to post a 30-stroke victory over runner-up Simpson (1290-1320). It was the Knights' first-ever women's golf championship. Buena Vista finished third with a four-round score of 1330.

Individually, Simpson's Janelle Claiborne held off Schiltz on the first-hole of a sudden death playoff to capture individual medalist honors. Both players finished with a 315. Schiltz was the individual leader after each of the first three rounds. Dohlman shot a final round 73 to finish third, one stroke back.

Top Returning Individuals: Twelve of the top-20 finishers from 2004 return to their teams' line-up this season. Schiltz, Dohlman, Stork (4th, 318) and Cress (7th, 332) are returning All-Conference performers (top-10 finishers) from 2004. Dohlman is looking to become the 13th four-time All-Conference performer in Conference women's golf history. In addition to her third place finish in 2004, she finished fifth in both 2002 and 2003.
