Central head coach Kent Clayberg says, "Central volleyball is looking forward to another great year. We lost some excellent players and quality individuals to graduation, but feel great about the talent and character of the young women returning. They've put in extraordinary effort and hard work, and are ready to seize their opportunity to rise to the occasion of varsity-level competition. We will be bolstered again by a strong freshmen class that looks to push for an immediate impact."

Coe head coach DeAnn Woodin says, "I'm looking forward to rebuilding what these upperclassman have started...becoming a nationally competitive volleyball program. We lost just one senior [Heather Noll, Second Team All-Conference], but have a strong group of seniors and juniors who are ready to take this program to the next level. This group had a taste of the IIAC Tournament semifinals, so they are looking forward to improving their finish. It's a very competitive conference with a lot of talented players, so there are going to be some tough battles as usual."

Cornell returns five starters and eight letterwinners from last season's 13-22 team that finished tied for fourth in the Conference with a 4-4 record. Last season marked the fourth straight 12-plus win season for the Rams, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1987-90. Dubuque returns six starters and nine letterwinners from last season's 19-15 team that finished seventh in the Conference with a 3-5 record. Dubuque led the Iowa Conference in most offensive categories including hitting percentage, assists, kills, and blocks thanks in large part to the quartet of setter J Browning, outside hitters Jody Klepinger and Jena Goedken, and libero Abbie Hillard. Browning, an All-Conference performer three years ago as a freshman, led the Conference and ranked 10th nationally with a 12.56 assist per game average in 2005. Dubuque head coach Cole Tallman says, "The University of Dubuque volleyball team will always have the same annual aspiration, to impact NCAA Division III volleyball at the regional and national levels. We return five seniors and experienced underclassmen. We must do a better job 'stopping' other teams instead of trying to outscore everyone. Otherwise, 2006 will be another season of the Spartans 'keeping both teams in the game at the same time.'"

Loras head coach Teresa Kehe says, "The 2006 Loras volleyball team will be seeking to improve upon its 0-8 record last season by building team morale, creating a fun and enthusiastic atmosphere, and striving to develop a winning mindset in order to strengthen their commitment, gain a stronger work ethic and improve their court skills."

Luther returns four starters and 10 letterwinners from last season's 3-29 team that finished eighth in the Conference with a 1-7 record. Martin and Everding were All-Conference selections last year. Martin finished fourth in the Conference in kills and ninth in hitting percentage with a 3.43 kill per game average and a .245 hitting percentage. Wartburg returns six starters and 10 letterwinners from last season's 20-14 team that finished second in the Conference with a 7-1 record, its ninth top-three Conference finish in the last 10 years. Among the Knights top returnees are a three-time All-Conference middle hitter (senior Sheena Treanor), a two-time All-Conference and honorable mention All-American middle hitter (junior Ashley Rogers), an All-Conference libero (junior Ashley Steines) and an outside hitter that made significant contributions as a freshman (sophomore Kelsey Steffens). Wartburg head coach Jennifer Walker says, "We look for this to be another strong season for Wartburg volleyball. We have a solid core of experienced players returning which will provide quality leadership for our younger athletes. We will continue to stress the importance of our defense and look to our offense to be explosive and balanced. This is a team that will definitely get stronger as the season goes on. Just like our team, many of the teams in the IIAC will have experienced squads. This season should be a competitive one from start to finish. We'll have to be ready every night we step on the floor."
