2007 IOWA CONFERENCE WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP PREVIEW

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA . . . The 2007 Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC) wrestling Championship is Thursday, February 15, at the University of Dubuque in Dubuque, Iowa. Matches begin at 10:00 a.m. in the Stoltz and McCormick Gymnasiums with the finals set for 7:00 p.m. in the McCormick Gymnasium following the Grand March at 6:30 p.m.

Iowa Public Television (IPTV) will televise the Championship finals live across the state beginning at 7:00 p.m. Tim Johnson will provide the play-by-play and former national champion wrestlers Jim and Joe Gibbons will provide analysis. For local IPTV stations, visit IPTV's web site at www.iptv.org.

National Polls: Seven Iowa Conference schools and 18 individuals are ranked in the latest National Wrestling Coaches Association/Brute-Adidas poll released on January 23. A new poll is scheduled to be released this week. Ranked teams are Wartburg (2nd), Luther (5th), Coe (6th), Loras (16th), Cornell (17th), Dubuque (22nd) and Buena Vista (24th). Since the last poll was released, #2 Wartburg defeated #1 Augsburg, avenging the Knights only loss of the season.

Nine of the 10 weight classes have at least one Iowa Conference wrestler ranked in the top-8, including six classes with at least two wrestlers. Three IIAC wrestlers are among the top-8 at 125-, 133- and 157-pounds. Wartburg has seven wrestlers ranked. Luther has four ranked wrestlers, Cornell has three and Coe has two. Buena Vista and Loras each have one.

2006 IIAC Championship Recap: Wartburg won its 14th straight Iowa Conference title last season, setting the IIAC record for points (208.0) and margin of victory (77.0). The Knights matched their own Conference record with eight individual Champions and had nine finalists (one shy of the record set in 2003). Luther finished second for the sixth time in seven years with 131.0 points behind one champion and four runners-up. Loras was the only other school with an individual champion and finished third with 115 points.

Three former Conference Champions return to their teams' line-up this year. Wartburg heavyweight Blake Gillis will look to become just the fifth four-time Conference Champion since 1965. Wartburg's T.J. Miller is the defending Champion at 197-pounds and Luther's Matt Pyle was the 2005 Champion at 149-pounds.

Fifteen of the Conference's 32 national qualifiers, and eight of 20 All-Americans from 2006 return to their teams' line-ups in 2007. Pyle and Gillis will look to qualify for nationals for the fourth time in their career, having earned All-American honors each year. Pyle leads a group of five returning Norse national qualifiers and Gillis leads a group of three returning Knight qualifiers. Buena Vista also has three returning national qualifiers, Coe has two returning qualifiers, and Cornell and Loras each have one qualifier in their line-up.

Thirty-two IIAC wrestlers will qualify for the NCAA Championship field of 160, the top-three in each weight class and two wildcards. The 2007 NCAA National Wrestling Championship will be hosted by Loras College at the Five Flags Center in Dubuque on March 2-3.

A class-by-class preview follows with each school's probable line-up. Championship brackets will be posted on the Conference web site (www.iowaconference.com) on Thursday morning and the web site will be updated with results throughout the day.
