IOWA CONFERENCE MEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP PREVIEW

CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA . . . The 2008 Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC) Men's Golf Championship begins this weekend, April 25-26, with the first 36-holes of the 72-hole Championship. This weekend's rounds will be played at Finkbine Golf Course in Iowa City, Iowa. The final 36-holes will be played May 2-3 at Oneota Golf and Country Club near Decorah, Iowa. Friday rounds begin at 11:00 a.m. and Saturday rounds begin at 9:00 a.m. Luther College is the host of the 2008 Men's Golf Championship.

On the first day of the Championship, Central College, as the defending Conference Champion is seeded #1, and its players will play with golfers from the second and third seeded teams (Simpson and Coe). Teams are seeded based on the averages from its four best 18-hole team scores during the spring. Players from the fourth, fifth and sixth seeded teams (Luther, Wartburg, Loras) play together as do players from the seventh, eighth and ninth seeded teams (Buena Vista, Cornell, Dubuque).

Pairings for rounds two and three will be based on the team score position following the previous round. Team's seven-eight-nine tee off first on both Friday's of the Tournament. Teams' one-two-three tee off first in round two. The final round pairings will be determined by individual scores after round three with the leaders teeing off last.

Each school may enter five players for each round with the four best performances each day used to determine the team score. Substitutions are not permitted from Friday to Saturday, however one player who competed the first weekend may be substituted for the second weekend.

AQ on the Line: In 2007, the NCAA expanded the field size for the Division III Men's Golf National Championship and began awarding automatic bids to qualifying Conferences. The Iowa Conference men's golf champion will be the Conference's automatic qualifier to the 2008 NCAA Division III men's golf Championship scheduled for May 13-16, 2008, at Chateau Elan Resort in Braselton, Georgia.

About the 2008 Season: Central enters the 2008 Championship having finished first or second in each of the five tournaments it has played this spring and with five of the Conference's top six individual golfers based on stroke average. The Dutch, who have a 297.1 team stroke average in eight rounds, won the Central Dutch Classic, Loras Duhawk Spring Invitational and the Buena Vista Spring Invitational, and finished second in the Dutch Desert Shootout and in a dual with Grand Canyon University.

Simpson, with a 313.4 average in nine rounds, has five top-10 finishes in as many events, including a runner-up finish at their own Invitational. The Storm finished fourth at Webster (Mo.), seventh at both Grand View and Buena Vista, and 10th at Wartburg.

Other top team finishes during the season include Coe's victory at the Simpson Invitational and Wartburg's finish at its own Invitational. Coe has the third-best overall team stroke average at 316.5 (11 rounds), followed by Wartburg (320.6 in 7 rounds), Loras (322.9 in 8 rounds), and Luther (325.2 in 7 rounds).

Individually, Central's Andy Petersen (72.6 stroke average), Reid Turner (74.7), Andrew Townsend (75.1), Joel Winters (75.4), and Justin Smool (75.4) are the Conference's top-five stroke averages among players with at least three rounds played. Buena Vista's Tim Murphy is sixth with a 75.6 stroke average, while Luther's Ross Jacobucci (76.4), Simpson's David Combs (76.4) and Brett DeNeve (77.0), and Coe's Nolan Schmelzer (76.5) follow close behind. Winters, Smool, and DeNeve are the only IIAC golfers with two rounds of par or better. There were a total of 12 rounds of par or better, including four sub-70 rounds – a 68 by Petersen, a 69 by Winters, and a 68 and a 69 by Smool – all at the Central Dutch Classic.

Murphy, Petersen, Turner, Townsend, Winters, and Smool have finished in the top-20 of each event they have played this Spring. Petersen and Winters each have three top-5 finishes with Winters taking medalist honors at the Buena Vista and runner-up honors at the Dutch Desert Shootout. Petersen took second at the Central Dutch Classic and in Central's dual with Grand Canyon University. Smool captured medalist at the Central Dutch Classic while DeNeve took top individual honors at the Simpson Invitational.

Complete team and individual season statistics follow this release.

2007 Championship Recap: Central won its IAC-record 26th Conference title in men's golf with five golfers in the top-11 and a 72-hole team total of 1191. Buena Vista used a 305 on the final day to jump into second place with a four-round total 1240 and was the only other school with all five golfers in the top-20. Simpson placed third (1251), followed by Luther (1254) and Wartburg (1270). Central's 49-stroke victory is the largest margin of victory since the IAC went to a 72-hole Championship in 1991. The previous mark was 40 strokes by Central in 1996.

Individually, medalist Andy Petersen led a quartet of Central golfers in the top-4, finishing with a 2-over-par 290 to win by nine strokes over teammate Isaac Rodenberg. Petersen is Central's 11th Medalist, more than any other Iowa Conference school, and its first since 2002. Joel Winters (300) was third, two strokes ahead of Brett Meyer. It was the second year in a row that the team champion placed its top four individuals in the top four spots on the medalist leaderboard (Wartburg).

Rounding out the top-10 and receiving All-Conference recognition were Simpson's David Combs (fifth, 303). Luther's Ben Hanson (sixth, 306), Buena Vista's Wally Byrne (7th, 309), Loras' Mark Dolphin (8th, 310), Buena Vista's Tim Murphy (9th, 311) and Luther's Tom Lantzzy (10th, 312).

Top Returning Individuals: Twenty-seven golfers with previous IAC Championship experience return to their team's line-up this year including two – Combs, and Coe's Jayson Schmelzer – who will be making their fourth appearance at the Conference Championship. Combs finished fifth last year, improving on his 12th-place finish in 2006 and a 25th-place finish in 2005. Central's Petersen, who returns to defend his medalist title, also placed 10th in 2006. Buena Vista's Josh Reed has placed 11th in each of the last two Championships, while Lantzzy has finished 10th and 12th the past two years.

Ten of last year's top-20 finishers, including seven of the top-11, return this year led by two golfers each from Buena Vista, Central, and Luther. Buena Vista's Murphy and Reed, Central's Petersen and Winters, and Luther's Lantzzy and Paul Soener (t-14th, 315) all return to their team after top-20 finishes last year. Other 2007 top-20 finishers returning this year include Combs, Dolphin, Wartburg's Ian Flores (t-17th, 317) and Coe's Chris Buhr (20th, 318).
