National Polls: Six Iowa Conference schools and 24 individuals are ranked in the latest National Wrestling Coaches Association/Brute-Adidas poll released on February 12. Ranked teams are Wartburg (1st), Coe (8th), Buena Vista (10th), Luther (12th), Dubuque (19th), and Loras (21st).

All 10 weight classes have at least one Iowa Conference wrestler ranked in the top-8, including nine classes with at least two wrestlers. Four IIAC wrestlers are among the top-8 at 157-pounds, while three other weights (125, 133, and 184) each have three IIAC wrestlers listed in the rankings. Wartburg has eight wrestlers ranked. Buena Vista has five ranked wrestlers and Coe has four. Cornell, Luther, and Loras each have two, while Dubuque rounds out the list with one ranked wrestler.

2007 IIAC Championships Recap: Wartburg College won its 15th consecutive Iowa Conference title last season. The Knights amassed 181 points as they claimed their 25th overall title by 21 markers over runner-up Luther College, which finished second for the seventh time in eight years. The 21-point margin of victory is the closest since 1994 when Wartburg defeated Buena Vista (158.75-138) and the 160 points by Luther is the most by the Conference runner-up. Wartburg claimed five individual titles, Luther crowned three individual champions, and Buena Vista and Coe each had one wrestler claim the top spot on the awards stand.

Five former Conference Champions return to their teams' line-up this year. Wartburg's T.J. Miller, the defending national champion at 197 pounds, will look to become the 37th wrestler to win at least three Iowa Conference championships since 1965. Buena Vista's Jestin Hulegaard (133), Wartburg's Aaron Wernimont (157) and Romeo Djoumessi (184) will also defend titles earned last winter, while Wartburg's Jacob Naig, who was sidelined last season by an injury, was the champion at 149 pounds and Outstanding Wrestler of the 2006 meet.

Fifteen of the Conference's 32 national qualifiers, and 11 of 19 All-Americans from 2007 return to their teams' line-ups in 2008. Hulegaard will look to qualify for nationals for the fourth time in his career, having earned All-American honors each year. T.J. Miller, Naig, Cornell's Chris Heilman, Loras' Jay Figgins, and Luther's Alec Bonander and John Miller are each looking for their third trip to nationals. Naig, T.J. Miller, and Heilman are each two-time All-Americans. T.J. Miller leads a group of six returning Knight national qualifiers. Luther and Cornell each have three returning national qualifiers, while Buena Vista, Coe, Loras, and Simpson each have one qualifier in their line-up.

Thirty-two IIAC wrestlers will qualify for the NCAA Championship field of 160, the top-three in each weight class and two wildcards. The 2008 NCAA Division III Wrestling Championships will be hosted by Coe College, Cornell College, and the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference at the U.S. Cellular Center in Cedar Rapids March 7-8.

A class-by-class preview follows with each school's probable line-up. Championship brackets will be posted on Wartburg's Championships Web site (http://www.go-knights.net/20081IACwrestling/index.html) and the Iowa Conference Web site (www.iowaconference.com) on Thursday morning and the web site will be updated with results throughout the day.
